MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. George A. Morgan Card
Acting Director
Psychological Strategy Board

The Acting Director of Central Intelligence has asked that you place on the agenda for the Psychological Strategy Board meeting of 19 August the subject: [redacted]

25X1

After an earlier experience with this type of operation [redacted] the Central Intelligence Agency decided to suspend such activities because of the danger of their being exploited by the Communists as a part of the then active BW campaign against the United States. Since that time, the subject [redacted] has been repeatedly raised.
